Dig to Discover

Dig up the past to uncover the future at the Wagner College Archaeology Fair.

Details on the back

Dig to Discover activity

Find all hidden items on front

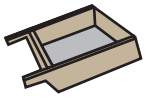
1) Trowel

USE: during excavation, used when a space is too small to use a shovel.

2) Shovel

USE: the primary excavating tool.

3) Screen



USE: to sift through soil.

4) Brush

USE: to clean artifacts.

5) Level

USE: to map features and excavation units.

6) Dustpan

USE: to clear soil out of the way.

7) Handpick

USE: to dig through hard surfaces.

8) Dental Pick

USE: to remove dirt from tiny spaces.

9) Magnifying glass

USE: to clearly see small details on artifacts.

10) Tape Measure

USE: to take accurate measurements of artifacts.

FREE ENTRY
FREE PARKING

When:
Sunday, April 27th, 11am-3pm
Where:
Wagner College's Spiro Sports Center.
Activities for all ages:
Archaeological digs and scavenger hunt.

Visit www.siarchaeology.org for more information
Supported by the Archaeology Society of Staten Island.